Tomb must be kept together. Yet one is often associated with darkness and the with light. Ith Calvery black and Rester bright? If the Cross is blackness, it is The darkness before the Dawn; it is the Sacrifice before the triumph.

ome a part of the loving will of God. For He had passed through Gethsemane; there a had accepted the via dolorous as the path of blessing; He was never alone on that toful Friday, for He walked with the Father God. The world may have lain in darksels at the Crucifizion, but there was no darkness in the soul of the Man of Galilee; He was the Son of God and had dedicated himself to the Father's will. To the world there was Death and the dark; it was Black Friday. But to the seeing soul of Jesus Christ there was Life and the light, it was Good Friday

And so it has become for the Christian world. The Man who arose from the dead on Easter morning had carried a Cross on Friday, Perhaps Easter will mean most to those of us who have learned during Lent to bear as well as to wear a Cross. The Christian symbol was not intended to refer only to the Cross of Jesus; we set the Cross they our churches and we exalt the Cross within the Church, representing a way of life. The God's walk as well as the walk of Jesus; God has forever carried a Cross, and with a specific upon the last. Godly women and men have eyer carried a Cross and it has brought to their hearts and blessings to mankind. For the Cross spells Life for all of us; and he lives best and knows the deepest loy who has chosen to bear his Cross as he discovers to the will of his God, Most blessed is he who, like his God, can carry the Cross with

And so it has become for the Christian world. The Man who arose from the dead on Easter morning had carried a Cross on Friday, Perhaps Easter will mean most to those of us who have learned during Lent to bear as well as to wear a Cross. The Christian symbol was not intended to refer only to the Cross of Jesus; we set the Cross they our churches and we exalt the Cross within the Church, representing a way of life. The God's walk as well as the walk of Jesus; God has forever carried a Cross, and with a specific upon the last. Godly women and men have eyer carried a Cross and it has brought to their hearts and blessings to mankind. For the Cross spells Life for all of us; and he lives best and knows the deepest loy who has chosen to bear his Cross as he discovers the the will of his God, Most blessed is he who, like his God, can carry the Cross with

The Cross and the Tomb have both been snatched from their association with Death; for they have been transformed by love and self-giving and by a Presence of bedience and glory. He lives and we, too, shall live, in the measure in which we "learn to kies the Cross," our cross as well as His

And so it has become for the Christian world. The Man who arose from the dead on Easter morning had carried a Cross on Friday, Perhaps Easter will mean most to those of us who have learned during Lent to bear as well as to wear a Cross. The Christian symbol was not intended to refer only to the Cross of Jesus; we set the Cross they our churches and we exalt the Cross within the Church, representing a way of life. The God's walk as well as the walk of Jesus; God has forever carried a Cross, and with a specific upon the last. Godly women and men have eyer carried a Cross and it has brought to their hearts and blessings to mankind. For the Cross spells Life for all of us; and he lives best and knows the deepest loy who has chosen to bear his Cross as he discovers the the will of his God, Most blessed is he who, like his God, can carry the Cross with

The Cross and the Tomb have both been snatched from their association with Death; for they have been transformed by love and self-giving and by a Presence of bedience and glory. He lives and we, too, shall live, in the measure in which we "learn to kies the Cross," our cross as well as His

And so it has become for the Christian world. The Man who arose from the dead on Easter morning had carried a Cross on Friday, Perhaps Easter will mean most to those of us who have learned during Lent to bear as well as to wear a Cross. The Christian symbol was not intended to refer only to the Cross of Jesus; we set the Cross they our churches and we exalt the Cross within the Church, representing a way of life. The God's walk as well as the walk of Jesus; God has forever carried a Cross, and with a specific upon the last. Godly women and men have eyer carried a Cross and it has brought to their hearts and blessings to mankind. For the Cross spells Life for all of us; and he lives best and knows the deepest loy who has chosen to bear his Cross as he discovers the the will of his God, Most blessed is he who, like his God, can carry the Cross with

The Cross and the Tomb have both been snatched from their association with Death; for they have been transformed by love and self-giving and by a Presence of bedience and glory. He lives and we, too, shall live, in the measure in which we "learn to kies the Cross," our cross as well as His
